

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my absolute pleasure to wholeheartedly recommend Corey Pearce, whose exceptional qualities as an educator and leader have profoundly impacted both myself and countless others. I first met Corey in 2018 when he was my instructor at cadet camp. From our very first interaction, his passion and talent for teaching stood out unlike anyone I had met before. Corey inspired an entire generation of drummers, instilling not just technique but a deep passion and appreciation for music.

Years later, when I took command of my own marching band, the Halton Cadet Military Band, Corey enthusiastically joined us, immediately elevating our program. His unmatched teaching skills, combined with an infectious enthusiasm and energy, brought out the best in every individual he taught. Corey possesses a rare ability to connect with students at their level, igniting their excitement to learn and achieve excellence.

Under Corey's guidance, our band transformed into a championship-winning ensemble—an accomplishment we genuinely could not have achieved without him. His signature mantra, "everybody all the time," encapsulates his commitment to consistency, teamwork, and relentless improvement, values he seamlessly instills in everyone who has the privilege of working with him.

Personally, Corey has been instrumental in shaping me into a more effective and confident leader. His mentorship continues to positively influence my approach to leadership, teamwork, and education. I have no doubt that his extraordinary skills in building high-performance teams will make him an invaluable asset to any organization fortunate enough to have him.

Corey Pearce embodies excellence, competence, and a profound dedication to growth. I recommend him without reservation.

Sincerely,

Andrew Kovacevic
